Many of you have asked, “Who will preach and what will happen during the time between Rev. Chris Henry’s departure and Rev. Baron Mullis’ first Sunday?” With that question in mind, the Transition Team thought it important to provide you with these key dates as we prepare for Baron’s first Sunday at Morningside Presbyterian Church on January 23, 2011.

- Sunday, December 12: Special Music Sunday, Walter Huff will lead the Chancel Choir in the Christmas Portion of Handel’s Messiah
- Sunday, December 19: Rev. Randy Calvo, Director of Alumni/ae and Church Relations for Columbia Theological Seminary will be preaching this Fourth Sunday of Advent.
- Friday, December 24: Early Christmas Eve Service at 4 p.m. with the Hand Bell Choir, Children’s Chimes, Liturgy by the Children of Morningside, Melinda Sandkam and Rev. Mary Miller Brueggemann.
- Friday, December 24: Lessons and Carols Service at 8 p.m. with the Chancel Choir led by Walter Huff and liturgists Rev. Kellie Anderson-Picallo and Rev. Mary Miller Brueggemann
- Sunday, December 26: Rev. Kellie Anderson-Picallo, Associate for Media and Education at Auburn Seminary and Parish Associate at First Presbyterian Church in Newtown in Queens, will be leading worship. Kellie is a former member of MPC and the daughter of members Andy and Nancy Anderson.
- Sunday, January 2: Betsy Turner, 2009 Graduate of Columbia Theological Seminary, will be our guest preacher. Betsy is married to member Nell Roberts’ grandson, Ian. She is also the daughter-in-law of members Gene and John Turner. Officer ordination and installation will take place this Sunday.
- Sunday, January 9: Rev. Dr. Bill Brown, Professor of Old Testament at Columbia Theological Seminary will be our guest preacher.
- Sunday, January 16: Rev. Mary Jane Cornell, former Pastor of Druid Hills Presbyterian Church will be our guest preacher.
