

Using Your Gifts to

Welcome All. Serve All.

at Morningside Presbyterian Church

“There are many kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working but the same God works all of them....”

- 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

Check as many areas as you would like to explore to discern and use your talents in service to your church, your community and the world. There are many and varied opportunities in each category. A team leader will be in touch to discuss your choices with you to find the happiest fit for your gifts.
